HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

RAILEY-HALL BARN

HABS No. GA-15-D

Location: State Highway 3/U.S. Highway 19 at Croxton Cross Road, Sumter, Georgia

Significance: This barn is associated with the Railey-Hall House which is part of a district which comprises the core of the rural crossroads community of Sumter in Sumter County. The district contains five commercial buildings including two stores; a filling station, a cotton gin, and a seed house that will be moved or demolished. The Railey-Hall house is also included in the district and is located on the west side of U.S. Highway 19. Several outbuildings and a metal windmill surround the house. The significance of the outbuildings is that they are recognizable components of a historic agricultural landscape.

Description: The one story, front facing gable, single crib wood frame barn has a flanking enclosed sheds and a single entrance with a board and batten door. The barn has vertical siding and a standing seam metal roof. The barn is dilapidated with missing portions of the roof covering and wall cladding.

History: The barn was extant in the 1920s but no date of construction could be determined.

Sources: Information was obtained through an interview of the current owner of the property, Charlene Railey Hall.
